State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

WHEREAS, an urgent need exists to enhance and expand the competitiveness of our workforce within the global economy; and

WHEREAS, a highly trained and motivated workforce is a critical component for a healthy and vibrant economy; and

WHEREAS, the IdahoWorks system, represented by the State Workforce Development Council, Regional Workforce Investment Boards, and many public employment, education and training providers, works in spirited cooperation to improve the workforce in our state; and

WHEREAS, The IdahoWorks system develops workforce services that are business driven, customer oriented, performance based, agile, and responsive; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of our great state benefit from workforce services and opportunities that facilitate transition to or within the workforce and that enhance their quality of life;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DIRK KEMPTHORNE, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim Labor Day, September 1, 2003, to be in Idaho and encourage all Idahoans to be aware of the spirit of cooperation between businesses, job seekers and the partners of the IdahoWorks system as they improve the workforce in our great state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this twenty-seventh day of August in the year of our Lord two-thousand and three and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred twenty-eighth and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred fourteenth.
